Grupo Argos Will Not Participate in the Takeover Bid for Grupo Sura and Grupo Nutresa.

The Board of Directors of Grupo Argos decided not to participate in the takeover bids for Grupo Sura and Grupo Nutresa, considering the prices offered are below the fundamental value of the two companies, according to the technical and strategic analyses presented by J.P. Morgan, among other considerations, which were evaluated at the Board of Directors Meeting of the last two days.

Grupo Argos will continue to accompany Grupo Sura and Grupo Nutresa in carrying out the initiatives announced by these companies to maximize the value for all shareholders, among which the linking with strategic partners is highlighted.

Grupo Argos reiterates its commitment to its shareholders so that they are the ones who perceive the fundamental value of the company and its investment portfolio.
