

RELEVANT INFORMATION

As reported on November 10th 2014, the Company was conducting the required steps to structure an issuance of preferred shares without voting rights; however, given the market's volatility and considering the Company has different funding sources that allow the continuance of its growth strategy, the Board has decided to cancel this issuance process.

February 25, 2015