

Annual Corporate Governance Report 2024

At Grupo Argos we are committed to generating value and to adopting and implementing high corporate governance standards that promote compliance with our business strategy, to honor the trust placed in us by our shareholders and investors and to promote the sustainability of the organization.

Thus, in compliance with the provisions of our Good Governance Code, we present the Annual Corporate Governance Report for the year 2024. Its structure obeys the recommendations of the Código País and describes the way in which the corporate governance guidelines adopted by the company were complied with.

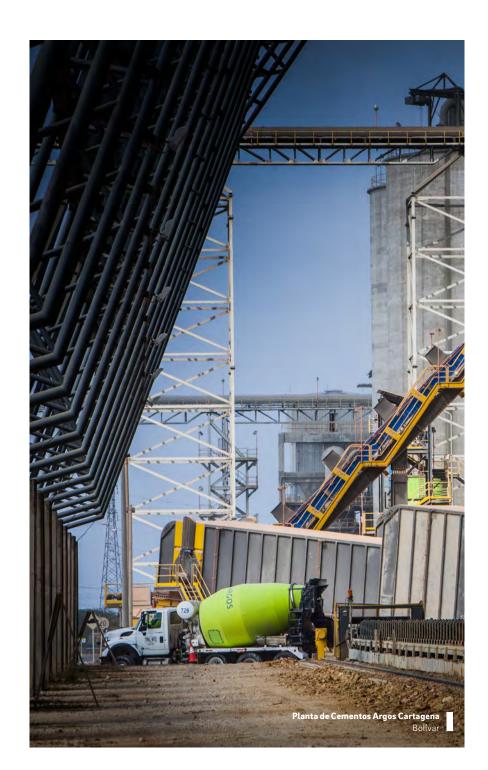

Significant events

- A meeting of the Board of Directors was held without Senior Management in which the results of the evaluation of the Board of Directors and the President of the company for fiscal year 2023 were presented.
- The Código País survey was completed and transmitted, which reflects the adoption of corporate governance practices that add value to the company, its shareholders, investors and other stakeholders.
- Grupo Argos obtained for the twelfth consecutive year the Issuer Recognition - IR from the Bolsa de Valores de Colombia, with a score of 96.6%, which highlights the company's efforts and commitment to best practices in disclosure and investor relations.
- In the last twelve years the company has been included in the Dow Jones Global Sustainability Index. By 2024 it ranked second in its industry, remaining among the leaders in the Dow Jones Global and Emerging Markets indices, which recognize the best practices in economic, social, and environmental sustainability of companies listed on the stock markets worldwide.
- The procedures provided by law were carried out so that the Shareholders Assembly: (i) could decide on the authorization of a change in the allocation of the company's reserves for the repurchase of shares upon the liquidation of Sociedad Portafolio S.A.; and (ii) could decide on the authorization required regarding potential conflicts of interest of some members of the Board of Directors to deliberate and decide on the strategic alternatives of Grupo Argos towards its

- investment in Grupo de Inversiones Suramericana S.A., as well as to decide on the authorization required regarding potential conflicts of interest of Grupo Argos' legal representatives to celebrate and execute all acts, agreements and operations required for the preparation and implementation of the strategic alternative that may be defined.
- The Shareholders Assembly amended the Company's Bylaws and the Policy for Appointment, Compensation and Succession of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors adopted adjustments to the Good Governance Code. All these amendments were made to strengthen corporate governance practices, clarify certain rules of corporate operation, and include new provisions that promote the rights of the company's shareholders.
- The Diversity Policy of the Board of Directors of Grupo Argos was adopted and incorporated into the Good Governance Code.
- The Annual Conduct Course was held, through which employees were trained to make decisions based on the corporate pillars of ethics and transparency and reinforced their knowledge of the organization's compliance system.
- 100% of Grupo Argos employees completed the evaluation of the Annual Conduct Course and filled out the Annual Declaration of Potential Sources of Conflicts of Interest.
- 100% of the target public defined according to their roles and functions completed the Declaration of Assets and Income.

To disclose conflicts of interest, all company employees and members of the Board of Directors must annually fill out the Declaration of Potential Sources of Conflicts of Interest, through which they must report situations that might be relevant on this matter.

Conflicts of interest shall be resolved by strictly applying the following principles: when the interests of Grupo Argos and those of its shareholders, administrators or a third party related to the company are in conflict, the interests of Grupo Argos shall always be preferred; when the interests of the shareholders and those of its administrators or a third party related to the company are in conflict, the interests of the shareholders shall always be preferred.

Potential conflicts of interest and actions of the members of the Board of Directors

The situations that could represent a potential conflict of interest among the members of the Board of Directors and other administrators during 2024 were managed in accordance with the procedures established by law, as indicated on pages 8 and 9 of this Report.

Internal Control and Risks

Internal Control System

Grupo Argos has an internal control system to ensure the adequate preparation, presentation and disclosure of financial information to its shareholders, the market and the general public. The internal control system is structured considering international methodological frameworks such as COSO and COBIT, local regulatory provisions and quality standards related to internal control and risk management practices. The fundamental purpose of this system is to unify the control culture in the business group and ensure the efficiency and effectiveness of all operations of the company.

For this purpose, there is a structure comprised of management, the Risk area, the Compliance area, the Internal Audit, the Statutory Auditor and the Audit, Finance and Risk Committee, who participate in the management of the internal control system in accordance with their roles and responsibilities, pursuant to the Company's Bylaws, the Code of Good Corporate Governance, policies and other company procedures.

Internal Audit prepares its work plan considering the risks and business processes and submits it to the Audit, Finance and Risk Committee for approval and follow-up during the year.

During 2024, management, the Risk area, Internal Audit, and the Statutory Auditor evaluated the design and effectiveness of the internal control system. These analyses were presented to the Audit, Finance and Risk Committee, and it was concluded that it is functioning adequately.

Risk Policy

Grupo Argos has a Comprehensive Risk Management System (SGIR) that incorporates the analysis of the performance of the company and its businesses, to manage strategic and operational risks.

The company has a model focused on the quantification and analysis of risks, which allows prioritizing and managing them. For this purpose, different simulation methodologies, scenarios and sensitivity analysis are used to monitor risk management, which is discussed in the corresponding corporate governance bodies.

The Risk Policy applies transversally to the entire business group and is complemented by a series of manuals and guidelines that frame the strategy, projects and processes, within the best standards of corporate governance and sustainability.
