

RELEVANT INFORMATION

Felipe Aristizabal Appointed Vice President of Strategy and Corporate Finance at Grupo Argos

The Board of Directors of Grupo Argos has appointed Felipe Aristizabal as Vice President of Strategy and Corporate Finance of the company, as well as Legal Representative. Felipe Aristizabal is an economist from Universidad EAFIT, with studies at Universidad de los Andes, an MBA from London Business School, and is a CFA Charterholder. He is currently the Chief Financial Officer of Cementos Argos and has previously served as Strategy and M&A Manager at Grupo Argos, Director of Energy and Natural Resources at Bancolombia, Senior Associate in Capital Markets Investment Banking at Bancolombia, and Investment Professional at SC Lowy in London. Additionally, he spearheaded the SPRINT program, which has been widely recognized in the market for the value it has delivered to Cementos Argos shareholders, led the process to prepare the listing of Argos USA on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), and has proven experience in mergers and acquisitions.

The Board of Directors of Grupo Argos expressed its highest admiration and gratitude for the work of Alejandro Piedrahita over more than a decade and highlighted his leadership on the strategic and financial front of the organization.

This decision will take effect on April 1, 2026.

Medellín, March 10, 2026